TEMPLEOGUE COLLEGE BAND

Templeogue College Concert Band was founded in September 1973. It is under the administration of Fr. Noel O'Meara, C.S.Sp., and its Musical Director is Lt.-Col Jim Doherty, who conducts the Band tonight. There are some 80 boys in training for the Band, and 45 of these appear on stage for this Concert.

The repertoire of the Concert Band is quite varied. Being a military-style Band, obviously the March tunes are ones which show off its capabilities. Tonight's programme contains two very contrasting Marches: Strauss's "Radetzky March" and a real up-beat version of "When the Saints Go Marching In." Suppe's overture, "Light Cavalry", the Chorale from Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, together with a type of symphonic tribute to Glenn Miller, obviously show the versatility of the Band.

The oldest member of the band is 16, the youngest, 13. They are all pupils of the College, which is run by the Holy Ghost Fathers, and they thoroughly enjoy their membership of the Band. They hope that you enjoy their contribution to this Concert. They will appear at the opening of the Concert,, and again they will start the second half of the programme after the Intermission.

Appreciation

The Holy Ghost Fathers wish to express their appreciation and gratitude to Lt.-Col. William O'Kelly, Chairman, Dublin Grant Opera Society, to Maestro Giuseppe Morelli and Mr. John Brady, the Accompanists, and to the Artistes who, notwithstanding their present very busy time, and the heavy demands on them, have most willingly given their services.
